'Get Out Of...' COUPONS!

Every month we'll give you a new 'get out of...' coupon to use in times of emergency!

USE THEM WISELY!

Front

Back

Get out of TAKING OUT THE GARBAGE

This coupon entitles the bearer to get out of taking out the garbage, emptying the bins or putting out the recycling for a one week period of his or her choosing.

Expiry 30/09/06. One coupon per child. Success not guaranteed on all grumpy parents living in a messy house.

Excuse (read out loud)

I'm so sorry .....
(insert parent/guardian's name)
but I must refuse to take out this week's garbage. Last week, while disposing of the rubbish, I was brutally attacked by the bins and suffered nasty bruises from their lid bites. We are presently arguing about street positioning and I don't wish to engage with the bins at this stage.

Cut out both coupon sides (front and back) and stick together. Download more coupons at www.kzone.com.au

Stump your mates, train your parent

ASHTON KETCHUM:
Pokémon

GOKU:
Dragon Ball Z

The whole truth and nothin' but!

Determined, hyped and travelling Hoenn, Ash is obsessed with the same thing as us – Pokémon! This dude's our hot pick for World's Greatest Poké Trainer. Watch and learn!

Supercharged Goku is the kick-butt warrior with a heart of gold. Just 'cos he's trusting and peace-loving don't mean this Saiyan is a walkover. Take him on at your own risk!

Bad move...

Team Rocket are always out to get Pikachu. So why did Ash hook up with them on Mandarin Island? Stick with the good guys, mate. And don't ever do the dirty on Brock!

Goku's smack to the head as a kid wasn't good for his career as a destructive super warrior. But who cares? He became a 'goodie' and Earth was saved. Phew!

Hit your mates for six

Stump Poké experts by asking 'em what Eevee's called in France! The answer's Evoli. But Pikachu is still Pikachu. You don't mess with a legend!

We're not the only ones mad for Goku. DBZ rocks kids' worlds in the US, Japan, Hong Kong, France, Spain and Mexico to name just a few!

Educate your olds

If your dad thinks you use a Poké Ball to tease your sis' then he's missed out on 10 years of Poké Training and it's time to set him straight. Dad should hit www.pokemon.com and memorise the Pokédex!

DBZ ain't the only hot Saiyan stuff. Your parents should suss Dragon Ball, Dragon Ball GT, plus grab the trading card game, video games and watch the 500-odd eps and 17 movies. That'll keep 'em busy!

Quotable quote!

"I was so kicking your butt there Misty!"

"I'm an ally to good. Nightmare to you!"

bout toons!

s and get down with the top toons!

MICHELANGELO:

TMNT

This guy knows how to party! If you're lookin' for a shelluva good time then look no further than the Turtle who cracks jokes, rides waves and aces video games as expertly as he handles his nunchaka. This guy is red hot!

When Micky dumped his nunchaka for a grappling hook in some eps, fans were NOT impressed. But he's back to packing a punch with the 'chaka so it's all good.

Let your mates in on a secret... his fave food is pizza. Nah, just jokes, everyone knows that! But they won't know this ninj' is 1.57 m tall and weighs 81 kg. He's one powerful package in a half shell.

Yonks before the Turtles hit the street, some dudes called Leonardo, Donatello, Michaelangelo and Raphael were making their mark pumping out mega famous art. It's time for your folks to meet the Turtles with 'tude and forget the Old Masters.

"Yes, dudes and dudettes. Major league butt-kicking is back in town!"

MONKEY D. LUFFY:

One Piece

As stretchy as F4's Mr Fantastic, Captain Luffy is upbeat, brave as and focused on one thing. Getting his rubbery mitts on the One Piece treasure!

Luffy didn't learn how to swim when he still could and now that he's gobbled the Gum Gum Fruit water's a BIG no, no 'cos the wet stuff and Luffy don't mix. Bad career choice, man!

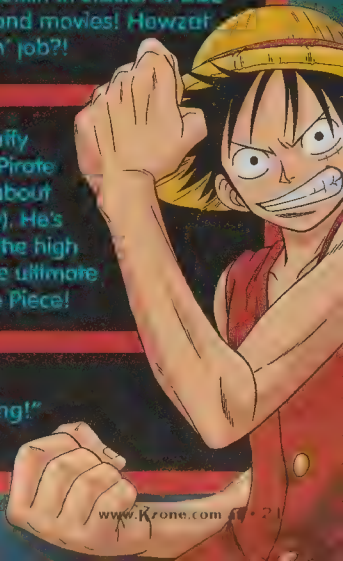

Crazy but true! In the Japanese version, Luffy is voiced by a woman - Mayumi Tanaka - who also plays Krillin in stacks of DBZ TV shows and movies! Hawzat for a rockin' job?!

Ok, parents, when Luffy says he wants to be Pirate King he's not talkin' about rippin' off CDs (piracy). He's talkin' adventure on the high seas and nabbing the ultimate bucket o' bling - One Piece!

"I'm the man who's going to be Pirate King!"

Kickin' RECORDS

Freaky things happen with feet at Guinness World Records!

RECORD

MOST CONSECUTIVE FOOTBAG KICKS

How many? 63,326
Holder: Ted Martin, US
Huh? Reckon you're good at keepy-uppies? Ted kept his footbag off the ground, using only his feet, for an exhausting eight hours, 50 minutes and 42 seconds to snag his record in June, 1997.

RECORD

MOST KICKS TO THE HEAD IN 60 SECONDS

How many? 57
Holder: JB Destiny, US
Huh? JB took the saying "knock yourself out" literally! Using martial arts-style kicks he belted himself on the forehead 57 times in 60 seconds!

RECORD

MOST TOES ON A CAT

How many? 28
Holder: Jake the Cat, Canada
Huh? Cats usually have five toes on the front paws and four on the back – a total of 18 in all. Little Jake, though, has seven toes on each paw. All the better to claw you with!

RECORD

MOST FINGERS & TOES

How many? 25
Holder: Devendra Harne, India
Huh? Born in 1995 with Polydactylism, poor Devendra scored 12 fingers and 13 toes! Plus, a baby boy born in London in 1921 was said to have had 14 fingers and 15 toes. Woah!

RECORD

LONGEST TOE

How long? 12.7 cm
Holder: Matthew McGrory, US
Huh? Actor Matthew McGrory was a whopping 229 cm tall before his death in 2005 and possessed the longest big toe ever measured. The world's tallest man, China's Xi Shun, has huge toes measuring 8.4 cm long.

RECORD

LONGEST TOENAILS

How long? 220.98 cm (total)
Holder: Louise Hollis, US
Huh? Inspired by reading about the man with the longest fingernails in 1982, Louise cultivated her toenails. Each one's now over 20 cm long, so she has to wear open-toed sandals with 7.5 cm-thick soles to stop her prized nails dragging on the ground!

BRAZIL vs KIWIS

Eager to kick us out of the World Cup, Brazil will play New Zealand in a warm-up match. The friendly on June 4 will take place in Geneva and is to prepare Brazil for playing the Soccerroos.

THE CUP

The FIFA World Cup Trophy will not be retired until the plaque has been filled with the names of winning nations in 2038.

ENGLAND HOLE UP IN A CASTLE!

Space will be all-important in Germany during the World Cup. Not only do they have to house the players, but also the coaching staff, technical team and various officials. England has solved this problem by hiring a 90-guestroom castle called Buhlerhohe Schlosshotel. The Australian team will make base camp in the 45-room Wald and Schlosshotel in Friedrichsruhe. Now all they have to do is work out how to pronounce their hotel names just in case they get left behind after training!

Wayne Rooney didn't make it to the World Cup by being lazy.

"If I didn't have to sleep or rest, I would be kicking a football all day. I'll have one in the kitchen for when I'm getting myself a drink or one on the couch to juggle when I'm watching telly. And I'll take one to play with my dog".

Kickboxing Seafood!

Yep, it sounds odd, but the next time you're at the beach, keep an eye out for 'kickboxing' prawns swarming in the water! While traditionally found in warm, tropical oceans, these 10 cm butt-kicking critters have recently been found off the Aussie coastline. The Mantis prawns are said to have "the swiftest and perhaps the most brutal attack of any predator" so look out!

GOBSMACKED! DRIBBLE OF THE DAY

"I DEFINITELY WANT BROOKLYN TO BE CHRISTENED, BUT I DON'T KNOW INTO WHAT RELIGION YET."

FOOTBALL SUPERSTAR DAVID BECKHAM KICKING SOME HOT AROUND!

Kicking and Screaming!

This one has gotta hurt! A man in the Southern Highlands of NSW was recently taken to hospital after having a run-in with a massive Huntsman spider. However, a bite from this hairy beast wasn't the cause of injury! Instead, the man broke his leg in two places after accidentally kicking the ground while trying to give the spider the boot!

OUT! NO-ONE LAUGHS AT MY HAT AND GETS AWAY WITH IT!

Booted Out!

Next time you're checking out a funny flick at the movies, make sure you flick at the movie, make sure you keep it down! A 19-year-old dude was recently kicked out of a screening of The Pink Panther in the US after other movie-goers complained that he was laughing too loudly. Oops!

NEWS FLASH! Just announced - One Piece: Pirates' Carnival.

OVER THE HEDGE

RELEASE DATE: LATE JUNE

The movie is just around the corner, so we're gearing up for Over the Hedge by getting into the video game. For those not in the know, Over the Hedge is about a raccoon, RJ who befriends a group of wood dwelling animals and introduces them to suburbia. Like most video games based on movies the game will be overloaded with mini-games and puzzles. The gameplay requires you to switch between two characters from the movie or play co-op with a friend. We're told that when the game is finished there will be 30 missions and 10 locations.

CARS

RELEASE DATE: JUNE

From Pixar Studios, the makers of Toy Story, Monsters Inc., Finding Nemo and The Incredibles comes the film you'll race to see. Cars is about racecar Lightning McQueen, who is on the fast track to success and fame until he takes a detour on the dusty Route 66.

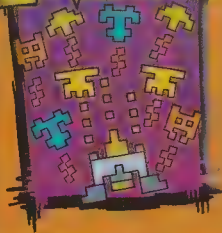

The game allows you to play as all of your favourite characters from the film, with the aim being to capture the coveted Piston Cup Championship. You'll hear all the actors from the movie in the game, like Owen Wilson as Lightning McQueen. There are more than 10 playable characters and over 50 cars.

McQueen is sponsored by Rust-Eze Medicated Bumper Ointment.

LEVEL 2

Available on: Nintendo DS

Rating: M

Release date: May 25

Score: ● ● ● ●

For those looking for a bit more bite in the DS games the bounty hunter Samus Aran has returned and is on the hunt for mysterious artefacts. The Galactic Federation has advised her to investigate the appearance of the Octoliths, artefacts left behind by an ancient civilisation. The problem is that they're located across five different worlds all with extreme environments.

METROID PRIME: HUNTER

Of course it wouldn't be a Metroid game without Samus' Morph Ball and now with the game on DS you can use the stylus to control Samus or switch to the directional pad for tighter control.

The only problem is that as you roam freely through this universe, six other bounty hunters are doing the same thing and they pose some serious competition. If you encounter them you may lose your collected Octoliths and will have to track them to win back the loot. Defeating other hunters in single-player unlocks multiplayer modes, giving you access to 20 arenas and seven modes, including Survival, Bounty and Prime Hunter in which up to four players can compete via the wireless connection.

Expect a non-linear experience involving shoot outs, puzzles and the ability to jump from one area to another quickly via portals. As you get further into the experience you'll upgrade weapons and unlock new areas. Most important to this is the use of a scan visor that allows you to locate, examine and unlock areas of the worlds.

POKÉMON TROZEI

Available on: Nintendo DS

Rating: G

Release date: Out now

Score: ● ● ● ●

Talk about an overload of Pokémon! There are over 380 types of these little dudes in this PokéPuzzle game. The aim is to match four of the same kind in a row, vertically or horizontally, in order to make them disappear. Only, the more you say "bye bye" to, the faster they come pouring down the screen. Like all puzzle games this one takes time, practise and patience. It will also drain valuable hours from your life as you attempt to catch 'em all.

While the idea is not new, the story and structure is a little different. The use of the stylus makes the whole experience faster and allows you to move Pokémon in different directions, including up one row.

Pokémon Trozei is to be called Pokémon Link in the US.

It seems a long time since we've had the chance to 'kick some shell'. But the pizza-gobbling, ninjutsu-wielding mutants are back and ready to smash.

This time they're returning in an old skool bash 'em up against the ever-present alien dinosaurs, the Ticerations. They're out to nab Professor Honeycutt again, who has left his home of Utrom for Earth and brought about the invasion.

While the first few levels are reasonably straightforward fighting arenas, the game really opens up to new adventures with a massive 60 missions for you to chow through. For a fighting game there's a lot of variety, including missions where you fly on your back, shoot from a plane, or throwing stars from a stationary position and even a Star Wars style lightsaber level.

And the only good thing about food and ancient scrolls, which will allow you to unlock battle areas, has increased with this game. One of the strongest features is the ability to play as any of the four turtles, each with their own unique abilities and weapons.

nunchaku and bo) and therefore that of fighting. One of which seems more powerful than others. Mission 1 is a fast learning curve from Mission 1 to Mission 2 you'll quickly learn to pay attention to question marks when in need of help to complete a mission. Keep an eye out for food which increases health and let some scrolls to make as possible. If all else fails switch to a lower difficulty in the Options screen. Whether kickin' it on the streets or in the sewers these turtles give a good name to MUTANT POWER.

THE MOVIE

The Turtles' fourth feature film is scheduled for release on March 30, 2007. It will be the first TMNT movie to be filmed in 3D.

X-MEN: THE OFFICIAL GAME

Available on: PS2, Xbox, Xbox 360, GameCube, PC, Nintendo DS, GBA
Rating: M

Release date: May 24

Score:

There have been a lot of Superhero games lately but X-Men will hook fans of the comic and movie by providing a unique back-story to the upcoming film. It also means that those dying to see the movie can play through the game without worrying about spoiling the movie experience.

In a smart move, a screenwriter from the film has joined forces with the comic book writer to create the storyline for the game. It works well as they have created a great story, giving depth to the characters and an intense experience in the gameplay.

You follow the story of three of the most interesting X-Men characters, each of which follows a different path. Wolverine is as grumpy as ever, Iceman has to get used to the new responsibilities that come with joining the X-Men and Nightcrawler is busy scaling walls. They also have very different unique skills that they use in battle, stealth and evasion and time-based missions.

Wolverine is about brute force and hack and slash, Iceman can glide along ice, shoot ice beams and create hailstorms and Nightcrawler uses acrobatics and the ability to teleport. For extreme power players can utilise Fury and Adrenaline modes to unleash devastating attacks.

Of course there is the ability to upgrade their signature moves and powers, using them in environments where you can cut loose and show them off. The game also explains the absence or inclusion of characters for the action-packed movie. Not to say the gameplay is lacking in action or power. If anything, this will have you running for the door to catch the conclusion.

THE BACKGROUND

The X-Men are a team of comic book Superheroes created by Stan Lee and Jack Kirby. They debuted in The X-Men #1, published in September 1963.

DID U KNOW?

Four X-Men, including one that has a major role in the new movie, are Australian. Gateway, Slipstream, Lifeguard and Pyro are all Aussies!

Go to the Chamber of Living Portraits in the centre of the Enchanted Kingdom's Palace. There you will see a statue of Thorn, who is holding an orb with a hole in the middle. The statue will explode and the Eye will drop to the floor. Simply move to the pedestal to pick it up.

To unlock this move you have to beat the game once. It allows you to attack while Peach is Dashing (hence the name). Press B or Y to use this while moving.

Endless Fever

To unlock Endless Fever, you must complete ALL of the levels in the game TWICE. Your Music History and Puzzles should be complete and you should have beaten all of the mini-games (you don't need to find all of the enemies to get it). After you have the above completed, go to the shop. It will be the last item for you to buy, but it doesn't cost anything. Endless Fever prevents your emotion meter from ever draining. If you want to turn it off, you need to go to the menu and go to Extras.

Head to your local PCYC for a martial arts class near you!

KZ: Who can get involved in martial arts?

AD: It's open for almost anyone – you can be as young as five or as old as 66.

KZ: What kind of fitness skills does martial arts leave you with?

AD: Fitness is the same whether you're doing tennis, football or martial arts. But the biggest difference is flexibility and the individual attention you get in a martial arts class.

KZ: How much training would a K-Zoner have to do?

AD: Classes twice a week for about 45 minutes.

KZ: What's a typical class like?

AD: We start with a bit of stretching and then hit the pads – it's very fast-paced! We teach self-defence skills and we work to zero down time!

KZ: Are there any weird training rituals you can let us in on?

AD: That's the big secret of martial arts and if I tell you that you'll have to come in and do the class! Nah, there are no hidden secrets – it's just another form of exercise.

KZ: So, are there any special martial arts rules?

AD: We need full attention in class, so that means no talking or messing around and not paying attention. We don't allow chewing or eating in class. But we aren't big on cracking the whip!

KZ: Phew!

KZ: Can a kid take on an adult?

AD: If someone tried to pull a child into the bush or a car and that kid had some basic and proper martial arts skills I think they'd do really well in getting away.

KZ: Have you ever been compared to a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle?

ARTS = KICK!!

AD: (Laughs) In all honesty, no, I haven't. I think the kids view me more like Master Splinter.

KZ: What similarities do you see in TMNT and the martial arts you do?

AD: The TMNT are well-trained martial artists and are very good at what they do. They're acrobats and gymnasts. They've been studying for many years, but the main similarities would have to be the kicking and punching that they do.

KZ: The Turtles use weapons. Are they used in the martial arts you teach?

AD: No, we don't use any weapons as they're not allowed.

KZ: Would you consider ever taking on a TMNT?

AD: I'd love to. But I think I'd get my butt kicked!

KZ: What would you do if Michelangelo came your way with a nunchaku?

AD: RUN!

KZ: Who's the greatest martial arts expert on the planet?

AD: Besides myself, probably Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan!

KZ: What's a pretty awesome martial arts move?

AD: The dynamic kicking – kind of jumping up and kicking in the air.

KZ: What about chopping wood with your hands (a flying kick), can you do that?

AD: No 'cos it hurts! I used to be able to do a flying kick through 10 tiles though.

KZ: Where does "hee-ya!" come from?

AD: It's actually called a 'Kiai' and is the word that generates power behind your moves.

KZ: Any advice for K-Zoners wanting to get a kick outta martial arts?

AD: Find a really good martial arts instructor, someone who really cares about the students, someone who can give you more than just kicking and punching.

Leonardo, swordsman with the double katana

The katana is a long sword used by samurai and is most popular. Leonardo is trained with the shorter wakizashi.

Donatello, master of the bo-staff

The bo is a weapon mainly used for self-defense. It has a wooden shaft and is often combined with kicks.

MEET THE GREEN MARTIAL ARTS MACHINES!

Raphael, three-pronged sai dagger expert

The sai is used to strike enemies. It's a three-pronged dagger. Raphael is a master of this weapon.

A nunchaku has sections of wood joined by a cord or chain. It can be used in many ways, including as a weapon.

X-MEN: The Last Stand

When you're a mutant, being a hero can land you more than just a sore head.

FAST FILM FACT

For one of the scenes, a 762 m replica of the Golden Gate Bridge was built.

LOST

If the casting agents had their way you might have experienced déjà vu while watching the latest X-Men film. Two of the Lost cast members Josh Holloway (James "Sawyer" Ford) and Maggie Grace (Shannon Rutherford) were considered for the roles of Gambit and Kitty Pryde. Josh turned down the role because it was too similar to his role as Sawyer, so they cut Gambit from the script.

Other mutants to keep an eye out for

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA

TURTLES - They may be heroes in a half shell, but without the Mutagen ooze they'd just be swimming in a pond.

SPIDER-MAN - With great power there may also come great responsibility, but without the bite of an irradiated spider, Spider-Man would only be Peter Parker.

HULK - Being a military scientist seems to leave you susceptible to mutation. Without gamma radiation Dr Robert Bruce Banner would be no more than a genius in nuclear physics.

WHO'S THE MUTANT
YOU'D LIKE TO KICK
BACK WITH?

Not fit with being a background character, Shawn Ashmore kicks aside his 'student' tag for an Iceman suit and joins the X-Men team for their last stand.

What can we expect from Iceman in The Last Stand?

Shawn: The most significant change is that he becomes one of the X-Men. In the other films, he's being trained and he gets thrust into situations, but in this one he takes a stand. He fights for what the X-Men believe in, which is tolerance.

Can you give us some behind-the-scenes gossip?

Shawn: Filming was long! It was five months or so up in Vancouver, Canada. I'm from there so it was nice to be home. But we shot for about two and a half months at night, outside, in the middle of winter. That being said, a lot of the stuff we were doing outside was huge battle sequences and stunts, so it was gruelling 'cos it went on for a long time, but everyone was really excited so it didn't seem like hard work!

X-Men has some pretty crazy fans, right?

Shawn: They're very dedicated and devoted. I think that's why it's the success that it is. I've never had anybody stop me in the street and tell me they didn't like the movie.

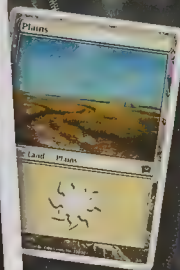

How do you feel when you see yourself on screen?

Shawn: I'm usually really uncomfortable. Every once in a while there's something I can get into, but when I'm watching a movie that I'm in, I'm remembering what I did that day, like whether I felt sick or what I had for lunch. Something along those lines!

If you could have a superpower in real life, what would you choose?

Shawn: I would love to have Professor Xavier's power – to read minds and manipulate things. It's kind of like a troublemaker power. I think it would give you a great insight into people you know, for good or bad. So maybe for a day that would be a fun superpower to have.

The mammoth or the voice?

The character! Once it's finalised, a model is made so the creators get a 3-D effect of what it looks like. They listen to an actor's voice while looking at the model to see if it will work. "We had Queen Latifah in mind for Ellie," producer Lori Forte says. "But for the others, we listened to actors' voices while looking at models to see if we could believe the voice coming out of that character."

Scribble This!

K-Zone teaches you all the right moves to smackdown a John Cena pic in no time. Here's The Prototype for a kickin' WWE drawing. Read and learn!

YOU'LL NEED:

er, a pencil, a black felt-tip pen, a eraser and something to colour in with.

Step 1:

YOU CAN'T SEE ME!

(Use your pencil for this step.)

We can't see him yet, but this is where we have to start! Always begin with a plan – that's what all great super villains do... and cartoonists too! Here's our plan for The Prototype: two circles and two lines! Simple as that.

Step 2:

(Use your pencil for this step.)

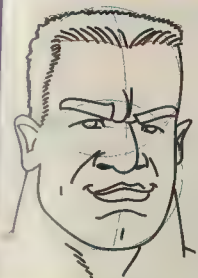

Now we lay down a few more guidelines before we get to the real meaty stuff. Using the lines from Step 1, draw in guidelines for Cena's hairline, eyebrows, nose, mouth and ears.

Step 3:

BULKING UP!

(Use your pencil for this step.)

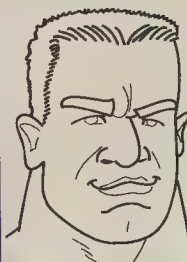

Here comes the hardest, but best step. It's time to put in the details, like Cena's flat-top hairdo, mean eyebrows, tough chin and chunky lips. Don't forget the curly bits in his ears, his thick neck and a bit of his broad shoulders too.

Step 4:

HIT THE SHOWERS!

(Get out your black felt-tip pen and rubber for this step.)

Now it's time to clean up Cena's grubby face. Trace over the lines you drew in Step 3 with a black felt tip pen. When that's dry, rub out all the pencil lines. You'll end up with an awesome, clean, finished drawing!

Step 5:

PUT SOME COLOUR IN THOSE CHEEKS!

(You'll need your colouring weapon of choice for this step.)

To really bring the champ to life, a little colour goes a long way. A bit of darker shading under the chin and a few other places helps make the face look 3-D. Well done! Now do another one and send it in to K-Zone HQ!

FREE MUSIC!

Search for your fave muso's official website. Most have versions of their latest stuff for free, often before it hits the shops!

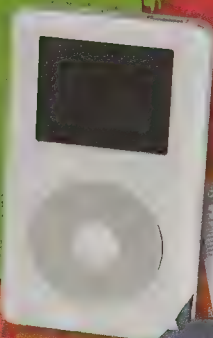

It would take about 24 computers from 1986 to store one song from an iPod!

TECH TALK

PODCAST: A podcast is like the radio through your computer. Just grab a microphone and a free podcast program to download your top shows and listen to 'em on your iPod.

STREAMING: Streaming lets you watch a show or listen to music online rather than downloading it to your computer. The clip is sent in pieces and you watch or listen as it arrives. Think of it this way – streaming is like watching TV, downloading is like getting a DVD!

EASY DOES IT

Be careful downloading music, especially for free! Music from an unofficial site or a stranger on instant messaging (IM) could give your computer nasty viruses – or worse. You could even be breaking the law!

IN TUNE

You don't need a CD to get the latest tunes. Just log on to your computer!

GETTING MUSIC ONLINE

There are tons of ways to get music online. Cheaper than buying it from a shop, it's heaps fast, easy and you can put together your own wicked mixes. The biggest and most popular online music store is iTunes, which also controls your iPod and plays music on your computer. If you don't have iTunes, download it free @ www.apple.com/itunes/. No iPod required! Then get some tunes. You don't need a credit card, just buy an iTunes card from a shop. Click 'Music Store' then search for your fave artist or song. Songs are as little as a buck each. Mix 'em up! Get the ok from mum or dad, click the 'Buy Now' button and then register for iTunes. Minutes later, the songs will be on your computer, ready to rock!

All About Anime!

Q. Do we ever get to see Gotenks as an adult?

Daniel McEvoy,
St Marys, NSW

A. We only ever see the fusion of Trunks and Goten during Dragon Ball Z and not in Dragon Ball GT, which is the only series in which we see these two characters as adults. So unfortunately, because of this, we only ever see the character of Gotenks as a youngster! I wonder what he would have looked like older?

Q. Who created Frieza?

Joshua Regester,
Portland, Vic

A. He is the child of King Cold who you can meet during the Frieza Saga in Series Two of Dragon Ball Z. Nothing is known of Frieza's mother though. Hmmm...

Q. In Pokémon, what happens when Ash goes to the Battle Frontier?

Cohen Morrison,
Albany, WA

A. Not much is known as the new series has only just started airing in Japan. No work has yet started on the English language version, but you can probably bet that Ash is facing his biggest challenges yet!

Q. Where can I find Kuriboh and the Egyptian God cards?

Siahna Graham,
Mount Hutton, NSW

A. To my knowledge you can only find these cards in the Japanese edition of the Yu-Gi-Oh! GameBoy Advance game. So your best bet is to catch the next flight over to Japan and head to the electronics district (named Akihabara) to pick yourself up a copy!

Q. In Fullmetal Alchemist, how does Alphonse die? Does Scar kill him?

ANIME ART

James Noonan,
Wodonga, Vic

A. Hmm... tricky question. I would LOVE to tell you the answer, but then that would be a big SPOILER, which may upset the people who haven't seen that far into the series! You'll have to watch the screenings on Cartoon Network or pick up a copy of the series on DVD to find out for sure! You may just be surprised at the outcome...

Q. In Dragon Ball GT, when Nova Shenron and Omega Shenron are battling and then Omega finally absorbs Nova, wouldn't he turn partly 'good' because of Nova's good chi?

Dale Schwass,
Lesmurdie, WA

A. Because Omega is the one doing the absorbing, his 'bad' chi will always outweigh Nova's 'good' chi. There is no doubt that there is some 'good' chi transferred into the overall new version of Omega, but the evil just overpowers it!

Q. Can you tell me what's a good anime podcast to listen to?

Michael Bradbury, Greenmeads, SA

A. There are some fantastic anime podcasts floating around cyberspace at the moment, but a brand-new one which has just hit the airwaves is the official Madman 'Anime Snack Time'. Subscribe to it through iTunes Music Store or directly via the Madman website at www.madman.com.au/snacktime. It's full of anime news, releases, features and other craziness! Be sure to go and have a listen.

Ju-Fei Chew,

Darcy Richardson,

Anita Li,

Arlo Wotherspoon,
Hastings, NZ

Rhys Hadfield,
Campbelltown,

Q. Will the Naruto episodes and movies ever be sold in Australia on DVD?

James Culbertson, Coffs Harbour, NSW

A. Only time will tell! Currently, all signs are pointing to YES. But nothing can be 'officially' announced as yet. My guess is that there will be an official announcement in the later half of 2006. Keep your ears peeled and your eyes glued to this column!

The Call of the Wild!

No, Rover hasn't gone bananas! He's just trying to tell you something!

It's a Dog's Life!

If you thought your dog was dumb for chasing the neighborhood cat or busting your living room beanbag, your pooch could be one of these five best intelligent breeds of dog:

- 1 Afghan Hound
- 2 Basenji
- 3 Bulldog
- 4 Chow Chow
- 5 Basset Hound

Barking Mad!

A recent study was carried out to see if dogs had accents just like their owners. Dog owners were asked to record a voice message with their dog's bark or growl. Experts concluded that our pooches do in fact have an accent just like us!

To make sense of our pets' weird behaviour, we kicked back with an expert. Pet psychologist Dr Seksel has those crazy feline and hound habits sorted!

KZ: How do animals try to communicate with their owners?

DrS: Our pets mostly use body language and sounds (called vocalisation) to communicate with us. Cats have worked out that people must be really stupid, so they've developed a special language just to communicate with us and they also use their tail in different ways. Dogs are clever and are able to read our body language really well. Most species can understand what we're saying to them better than chimps can.

KZ: Do pets remember when and where they will be fed each day?

DrS: Absolutely! I've seen dogs pick up their food bowls and drop them at their owner's feet at the same time every day.

KZ: Is it true that goldfish only have a five second memory?

DrS: I certainly think goldfish can remember longer than five seconds. You can train them to jump through hoops if you have enough patience.

KZ: Why are dogs so fascinated by wheels, like on bikes and cars?

DrS: It's got to do with movement. Because dogs are predators they chase things that move. So it's not only things with wheels. If a person jogs past, you'll probably get a similar response.

FEET

FUN GROSS OUT FACT!

When can your breath smell like smelly feet? When it contains high amounts of 'isovaleric acid' - just one of the nasty chemicals made by mouth bacteria.

Others include 'putrescine' which gives decaying meat its special fragrance, 'cadaverine' which is usually given off by corpses, 'skatole' and 'methyl mercaptan' which smell like poo, and 'hydrogen sulphide' which smells like rotten eggs.

More on the Gross Out Game...

I can push my snot through one nostril and out
the other...

Do you like playing gross out? Well the lab rats in the Gross Out laboratories are working overtime on the Gross Out game to give you the best online fun. You can play the Gross Out Game on its own and still record your high score, but if you want to be up there on the scoreboard, get hold of some Power-Cards so you can power-up your gross gadgets. The Power-Up cards make the gross gadgets go half-power to full power. This means when you get a direct hit or a close hit, you will get more points. A powered-up gadget also sounds completely different, which is pleasing on the ears. Each card has a different amount of powered-up shots, some have just a few, while some have more than 15. You have an even chance of a card being a low number of shots or a high number of shots. The Power-Up cards will come in especially handy once you get on to the game, because you will really need them to go to the 2nd level of the game and beyond.
